

Geological survey

Experienced specialists of VentEko provide wide range of geological services for state institutions, municipalities, private companies, developers and others.

We offer:

- Geological condition investigation;
- Drilling works;
- Water body bottom sediment investigation;
- Geological processes investigation;
- Geological mapping;
- Geological data base and information system development.