

Quality assurance

VentEko has introduced and certified:

- Quality Management System according to the requirements of standard ISO 9001
- Environmental Control System according to the requirements of the standard ISO 14001
- Labor Safety and Occupational Health Management System according to the requirements of the standard OHSAS 18001

Licenses and certificates required for the performance of VentEko business activities guarantee the professional competence of employees as well as the authority to perform environmental engineering projects in Latvia as well as abroad.

One of the highest VentEko evaluations is the Latvian Award of Quality within the group of companies of small and medium range which is one of the most prestigious business awards in Latvia, conferred by the Latvian association for quality in cooperation with Ministry of Economics of the Republic of Latvia.